hurt.

A wrecking train carrying physicians has left for the scene from Springfield, which is 31 miles south of South Greenfield. The wreck occurred just off a trestic and at a sharp curve, while the train was running at a high rate of speed. The switch had been set deliberately for the sidefrack, and the lights had been turned to indicate a clear track. It evidently was the work either of train robbers or of persons maliciously inclined.

A freight train was standing on the siding and before the passenger engineer as we the open switch his train had passed through it and crashed into the freight. lays His Heart Feels Like a Needle Was Piercing It and the Pain Is Like That From a Toothache.

Edward Spilker, the "man with the torn

Edward Spilker, the "man with the torn heart," is getting well.

He is the remarkable patient at the City Hospital whose attempt to end his life by a builet fired into his heart was frustrated by the surgery of Dr. Louis Rassieur, assistant superintendent of the City Hospital, who, in the absence of Dr. Neitzert was the transfer to the committee to the committe ert, resorted to a heroic operation to save the patient.

Spilker's case seemed hopeless when Dr. Spliker's case seemed hopeless when Dr. Rassieur held his torn heart in his hand and sewed up a ragged wound in the left ventricle, timing his stitches to the pulsations of the heart.

tions of the heart.

This was Sunday afternoon.

Spilker cheated the death he desired when he fired the shot. He rallied Sunday night and Monday night he distinguished himself by leaving his had and walking through the ward searching for water. Tuesday he was stronger and Wednesday the drain pipe from his wound was removed. Thursday, Spilker, strong and in strong voice, talked to friends.

"My heart feels like a needle was piercing it continually. The pain is one long toothache of the heart, but not the throbbing kind. I am relieved when I sleep. They don't give me enough to eat, and I am hungry. I want water, too. The first 24 hours I was denied a drop of water, alnough my throat was pardhed. Water would have proved fatal to me the doctor said, while I was in the critical stage. They give me water now, abundance of milk and soup.

"I am afraid I may die. Some of my friends came to see me yesterday and I talked to them. I sleep better when I lie on my side. I'm told that a wonderful operation was performed on me. It is hard to tell how my torn heart feels on account of the pain, but I guess it is doing business as usual."

Dr. Rassleur says that all acute danger of death is past, and that Spilker will recover unless he should contract pneumonia from the effects of the bullet which plowed through his left lung after striking his heart, or suffer from pericarditis, inflammation of the heart.

She has succeeded in obtaining the outer garment. It is a coarse, rough coat of the ulster variety. It covers her from head to foot and fits her nowhere. Buttons are missing here and there and the ragged belt hangs behind as if it had never been made use of. The material is the coarsest, shoddy, and is so stiff, awkward and uncomfortable that it would be despised by the toughest tabby of the Tenderloin.

In this coat she was posed before a local photographer in order to determine the effect, and thus furnishes the first photograph of the character. She is seen in several attitudes, both sitting and standing, smoking the inevitable cigarette. With this realistic "make-up," and her assumed express on of moral depravity, she presents a picture of abject degradation, such as would be hard to parallel in the lowest Irving Jacobs was one of the youngest men in the navy at the time he joined. Last Thanksgiving day he obtained a furlough and returning home told his parents of the numerous things he had seen in many parts of the world.

Upon returning to his duties he was assigned temporarily to the receiving ship Panther of League Island, Pa. Jan. 3 he was transferred back to the Iowa, and the following day he was received as a hospital patient. L. W. Rider, who attended him in his last illness, wrote that young Jacobs caught a cold which speedily developed into pneumonia. The funeral was held on the quarterdeck of the Panther Sunday afternoon, the Rev. W. G. Isaacs, chaplain of the battleship Kearsarge, conducting the service.

Catarrh of the throat and bronchist tubes as well as catarrh of the stomach and liver are almost as common as nasal catarrh and generally more difficult to cure.

Catarrh is undoubtedly a blood disease and con only be successfully eradicated by a internal treatment. Sprays, washes not powders are useless as far as reaching he real seat of the disease is concerned.

Dr. McIverney advises catarrh sufferers a new preparation, sold by drug.

"Every fall I would enten a cold which would settle in my head and throat and hang on all winter long and every winter it seemed to get a little worse. I was continually clearing my throat and my voice became affected to such an extent voice became affected to such an extent ha to interfere with my public speaking.
"It tried troches and cheap cough cures and sometimes got relief, but only for a short time, until this winter when I learned of the new catarrh cure, called Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, through a newsraper advertisement. Two fifty cent boxes which I bought at my druggist's cleared my head and throat in fine shape and to guard against a return of my old trouble I keep a box of the tablets on hand and whenever I catch a little cold I take a tablet or two and ward off any serious developments."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets deserves to head the list as a household remedy, to check and break up coughs and colds, because unlike many other catarrh and cough cures these tablets contain no opiate, cocaine or any injurious drug.

With Favor. With Favor.

The St. Louis Republican Club next beaday night will take action on the novement to bring about the consolidation of the St. Louis Republican and Merhants' League clubs: the leading Republican organizations of St. Louis. At a neeting of the latter organization last ight definite steps were taken to bring hout the proposed consolidation.

Among those who spoke in favor of the novement were President John A. Gillam, Judges Seiden P. Spencer and Dandel D. Fisher, Jeptha Howe and others. The broaching of the consolidation was trended with considerable enthusiasm.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MERGER BUTTER FOR

In Charge of Government Officers.

NEW TROUBLE FOR SCHNELL PRESIDENT OF THE SOUTH SIDE

SUPPLY CO.

Label as the Law Provides.

Councilman Louis Schnell has again come into the limelight of official inves-tigation in connection with the confiscation of a lot of "process" or "renovated" butter, which the United States revenue officers have seized in various city insti-tutions within the past few days. This butter has not been removed from the coolers of the institutions, but is being held under government seal pending the action of the authorities at Washing-ton.

Included in the confiscated butter are 18 firkins out of a consignment furnished by the South Side Supply Co. on a contract Jan. 13 last.

by the South Side Supply Co. on a contract Jan. 13 last.

Councilman Schnell is in charge of the South Side Supply Co., which has head-quarters at the rear of his grocery store at the corner of St. Ange and Chouteau avenues.

Councilman Schnell last Friday appeared in the Court of Criminal Correction on a charge of obtaining contracts for furnishing supplies to a number of city institutions while a member of the City Council. The case was dismissed on a technicality.

Mr. Schnell says that his contract with the city for butter called for three grades: Fox River, the best; Elgin creamery, second; "nearby creamery," third. He said that the "process" product was good butter. "Lots worse has been furnished the city," he declares.

Mr. Schnell maintains that a plan is on foot to ruin him, and that the persecution will not be checked until that end is attained.

The officers of the South Side Supply Co. are F. D. Schnell, president; J. Schnell, vice-president; L. C. Schnell, treasurer. They are members of the councilman's family.

The seisure of the "process" butter was made by Division Collectors A. J. Pareira, Frederic Kolb and George Atwood of Revenue Commissioner Westhus' office.

None of the tube in which the butter was originally delivered bears the necessary government label and the collectors'. Uses evidently having been removed.

This, the revanue officials say, is a plain indication that some one removed the labels for the purpose of substituting the contents for a better grade of butter, such as may have been called for in the contract.

BRIDE LONGS FOR OLD HOME

Nostalgia.

Although representatives of President Roosevelt and Emperor William took part in the preparations for her wedding. Mrs. Johanna Faust Bode, bride of Rev. Henry Bode of Mehiville, has lost her interest in her new home through her longing for the Fatherland.

Homesfekness is considered the cause of the serious illness of Mrs. Bode, for whose recovery prayers are being offered at each service by the congregation of St. John's German Evangelical Church, of which her husband is pastor.

Mrs. Bode, who was Miss Faust of Carlsbad until last summer, met her husband while he was spending his vacation at the resort. The mutual attraction was immediate and their marriage followed within a week, after the stringent provisions of German law had been carried out. The consent of the American consul and two of the Kaiser's cabinet ministers had to be obtained for the wedding.

THE FARRIS POLICE BILL

If It Becomes a Law It Will Increase Expenditures From $100,000 to $150,000 a Year.

Frank Farris' bill introduced in the General Assembly is causing a great deal of discussion relative to the appointments of probationary patrolmen to be regular patrolmen. The measure provides that whenever probationary patrolmen shall have served on the force two consecutive years they shall be promoted to the rank of regular patrolmen. This means that their salary would be increased from $56$ to $99 a month. Harry B. Hawes, president of the Board of Police Commissioners, is quoted as saying that the origin of the bill is wrapped in mystery. He says if it should become a law it would entail an increased expenditure for the police department of from $100,000 to $150,000 a year. It is understood that the police board will consider the bill at its next meeting and will decide whether or not the measure shall have the approval of the members of the board. Senator Farris in dispatches from Jefferson City is quoted as saying that the object of his bill is to prevent the police board from putting men on the force and promoting them over the heads of the probationary patrolmen. General Assembly is causing a great deal

COLONEL NEEDS ROOM WITH MANY EXITS.

After a Day of Ceaseless Activity the King of the Lobby Concludes That the State Has Gone "Pass Crazy."

From a Post-Dispatch Staff Correspondent.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 22.—"It busiest day I ever spent." uch was the comment of Col. William H.

rily colonel's assertion.

Inside of 24 hours he changed his rooming marters four times to evade an army of Legisators, clerks, politicians and those he have no particular business here, but e prompted to visit the state capitol out helps arrived Monday night and went to McCarty House.

"I want a nice, quiet room," he said, as e inscribed his name on the blotter. "All right,' said the clerk. "I will put you on the top floor. I have a fine there with bath attached. "How many exits are there?" asked the

The clerk hunted up the proprietor, and The clerk hunted up the proprietor, and the colenel was soon accommodated with a room containing as many exits and entrances as he had hands and fingers.

There were sliding doors, doors that didn't slide, some that never opened and others that could be kept open all the time without subjecting the guest to any intrusion.

This suits me," was the railroad attor-'s comment as the beliboy slammed his p on the floor, asked if he "didn't want water" and lingered as if hungering a tin." for a tip.

The words had scarcely been uttered when a blue-liveried messenger appeared. The colonel ripped the edge of a yellow envelope and mutter something about "It is no use in me trying to play hide-andis no use in me trying to play hide-andseek."

The "pass cormorant" had found him out, and all he wanted was three mileage books for "myself" and "two of the boys."
Phelps called his private secretary and the transportation was soon on the way to a gentleman who boasts of his antipathy to the lobby.

Soon afterward another request came and then—well, the colonel had no peace.
It has been stated by those in a position to know that Phelps is dealing out passes hour clapsed and the colonel consid-with himself a proposition to retire, no rest for the wicked," he exclaimed hird batch of applications reached as third batch of applications reached him.

"Has the whole State of Missouri," he finally said, showing painful exasperation, "turned pass crazy?"

"Just a mileage book for one is all I will ask of you," was the phrascology of letters, which rang in the colonoi's ears, as he touched his downy couch and disturbed his much-needed slumber.

A dream that he was endeavoring to distribute a block of railroad tickets, which, if put side by side would stretch from Maine to Calitornia, was disturbed as the sunlight dazzied his eyes and warned him that it was time to be "up and doing."

At the breaktast table a small boy approached Phelps, and, in a rather timid way, said:

At the breakfast table a small boy approached Phelps, and, in a rather timid way, said:

"I'd like to get a car ticket, too,"
When Phelps reached the capitol he was surrounded by members of the clerical force, who, after announcing that "nay representative is so and so," of course, you know him, "politely dunned him for the railroad wherewith to reach their homes after the House and Senate adjourned Sunday.

"Just write it out," said the colonel, to one importunate young man.

"I have four committee meetings to address today and I'll be busy from now until sundown."

"O. I thought you could attend to me now," issisted the applicant.

"No, I can't" said Phelps. "I've got my hands full at present looking after sand-bagging bills. Don't you know that there are measures before this legislature that would drive every corporation out of the state if they were enacted into laws? There are just about $1, or maybe $3, almed against railroad companies."

"Colonel, like to see you a minute," interrupted a senator, at the same time winking significantly.

Phelps knew the sign and hastened to his side. And thus he passed what he called "my busiest day," and as if to have insult added to injury. Phelps just before he left heard a joint and concurrent resolution read in the house to come! "railroad companies to furnish all state and county officials transportation free during their terms of o tice."

By a Post-Dispatch Staff Correspondent.

JFFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 22.—Frank Gaiennia, representing the Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis, is in Jefferson City in the interest of the three insurance bills now perfang in the Legislature which have been introduced by the commercial organisations of St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph.

"After consider whe discussion with prominent members I do not believe we will have much treuble in securing the passage of the bills to relieve the irsurance situation," said ldf. Gaiennia. "I find a general d'spesition among the members to do someth ng which will give the large intererts which are asking for the passage of these bills relief. A spirit of fairness is evident. A joint meeting of the House and Senate committees on fire insurance has been called for next Wednesday evening, which will give the representatives of the different cities a chance to be heard on the merits of the proposed jegislation.
What opposition there is is concentrated on the modification which we propose, of the valid policy law, but there is no doubt that when the merits of the proposed modification are fully understood the opposition will diminish.

"The other two bills, one of which provides for coinsurance and the other permits insurance brokers to form local asacciations, seem to meet with favor. One of the best filustrations of the operations of the valid policy is shown by a comperison of the conditions which exist in Missouri and Iowa. One instance is the town of Bianchard, which is on the state line dividing the two states.

This Building Will Relieve the Overcrowded City Hospital

The Pius Hospital, the above photograph of which was taken by a Post-Dispatch staff photographer Thursday morning, is at the southeast corner of Fourteenth and O'Fallon streets. The building has been leased by Mayor Wells for five years, and will be used as an emergency hospital. The rental is $50,000. It will relieve the overcrowded condition of the present City Hospital, and when the new one, in South St. Louis, is completed will serve as a place to take persons injured in the central portion of the city, whose condition is too serious to permit them being carried a great distance in an ambulance.

The structure is a four-story brick and contains 120 rooms. It can be equipped to accommodate 200 patients. The building will be ready for occupancy in a month.

There are many men in St. Louis interested in such work many who take pride in the development of local institutions which are a source of pleasure and profit to every member of the community. Who will start the fund with a good subscription and insure the success of a cause second to none in importance and boneficence?

Public sentiment will unqualifiedly approve of the promptness with which Mayor Wells has acted on the suggestion of the Post-Dispatch, to provide more room for the patients at the temporary city hospital. The Post-Dispatch made a startling and thorough exposure of the unbearable conditions at the hospital, due to overcrowding, and suggested that rooms be rented or temporary buildings erected. The mayor's plan includes the leasing of a buildings in the neighborhood and the appropriation by the city of $50,000 to meet the necessary expense. The emergency is great, and no time should be lost in carrying out the plan.

THAT TEN-DAY RULE.

The Post-Dispatch regrets that through a spirit of fairness, and at the suggestion of Lieut.-Gov. Lee, it was misled into giving Mr. Lee credit for the ten-day rule reported by the rules committee and adopted by the Senate. The mistake is the more to be regretted because it has thrown upon Mr. Lee the great burden of writing letters disclaiming the credit and expressing his amazement at the folly of the newspapers which have de-scribed him as the author and principal promoter of that excellent rule.

promoter of the ten-day rule in the Senate, the Post-Dispatch did not intend to convey the impression assumed by Mr. Lee that he was the originator of all ten-day rules, but merely that he was the originator and promoter of the movement to estab lish this partioular rule in this Missouri Senate.

The action of the Post-Dispatch in mentioning with approve Mr. Lee's claim to the authorship of this ten-day rule was based upon the following statement, published over his name in the Republic: "I knew this (the rules committee) to be an ab-But one thing the legislature can do. FAULT OF THE LAW.

To the Editor of the Post-Dissistch.

I see that a complaint is registered against the exclusion of children from the kindergarten if the children be under fyears of age. The law that made this exclusion possible is supposed to have been based on lack of kindergarten accommodation. Afterwards the school board went up to Jefferson City to amend the law and make it is years, as it is in the East, but some influence greater than the school board was at work and the amendment was not passed.

The true kindergarten age is 4 years, or even s, according to Froebel.

average for the match was over all and his best essay was 78.

The Choctaws won the match easily, taking five straight from the enemy.

League records want glimmering in the match between the Rialtos and Consumers of the Mound City League played last night on the Acme alleys.

The high team game was the first to go, at the third contest getting the Rialtos life pins. Niedringshaus, with excellent breaks helping him, then went above the high five game mark, totaling 380 pins for the match, an average of 66 flat.

The Rialtos were in excellent form, and barring Lippleman, all had good marks at the end of the evening. The Consumers bowled well, but were able to win only one game. Luse of the losing team tried to pull the match out of the fire for his side and tailied a fl average for the series, while G. Michael went 48 and Dolphus 53.

The match between the Blue Ribbons and the Delabars, the former team got the biggest end of a close match, with three games to the enemy's two. The contest was played on the Reyal alleys and the scores were fair. Miller and Santiabed new out for the Blue Ribbons, their avertor' the low marks of First and Gallagher The Office Men's Club team which went against the Securitys of the Junior organization on the Creacent aleys, has distant on the Creacent aleys, and the Security won three games from the O. DELMARS TOOK FIVE.

If the handicapper of the Office Men's Club League will look himself in privacy with last night's score of the Delmar-Cyclers' match, by doing a little arithmetic he can find out where he will low his job unless he has a put, in cocked-hat circles. The chronicles of that contest have it that the Delmars won five games in an exercise gallop from a team handicapped at the same total, it would be a shame to expose the figures, as some persons might be tampted to subtract the handicapped at the same total, it would be a shame to expose the figures, as some persons might be tampted to subtract the handicapper of the Cyclers from their soores. We can almost say that nothing would result from this. At least there would be little left. The handicapper explains by asying that the Deimars had no meney and had to win, but we take this with a grain of salt. A 55 average for Beckman, 56 for E. Buschart, 6 for Tilman and other symptoms of insanity were displayed by the winners, while Looffe' spooned out a 13 for the losers. He was all alone in his class. H. Laing some near running a dead heat with a 4 average, but missed out by a fraction. Other not swerthy achievements of St. Louis.

Bowling as wind-up man for the Choctaws in last night's contest against the Mohawks, Hirsch, though knocking out the center pin eight times, went through the five games with but one miss.

This mark has never been beaten in local bowling annals.

Hirsch's mark is a record, however, only so far as the National Cocked-Hat Association goes. Four years ago, before the organisation of that body, Otto Schnieder, bowling then for the Mound City League, rolled a one-miss match, with it accked pins, which is really a better performance. Last year in the tournament Cymer of the Merchants' League duplicated the performance of Hirsch, realing one miss to eight oocked pins.

SHARKEY'S BOND

EXCISE COMMISSIONER GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR $1600 BECAUSE SALOON WAS DISORDERLY.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—P. W. Cullinan, state commissioner of excise, has obtained a verdict from Judge Blanchard, in the Supreme Court, for $1600, the amount of the bond furnished by a fidelity and deposit company in behalf of Thomas Sharkey, a puglist, and Bernard Reich, when they obtained a liquor license for their place in this city.

"I had an abscess in my side in the fallopian tube (the fallopian tube is a connection of the ovaries). I suffered untold misery and was so weak I could scarcely get around. The sharp burning pains low down in my side were terrible. My physician said there was no help for me unless I would go to the hospital and be operated on. I thought before that I would try Lydia E. Stilvideo, Ohio.—$5000 for feit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced. It would seem by this statement that women would save time and much sickness if they would get Lydia E. SHELLS RAIN ON SAN CARLOS

THE TOWN SET ON FIRE BY EX-PLODING MISSILES.

England Amazed at the Unexplained Assault, While the German Government Insists That the Fleet Had No Orders to Attack From Berlin.

Falke and the Panther, bombarded Fort San Carlos yesterday, and at lastest advices received here the bombardment was going on.

The attacking squadron was under the command of Commodore Scheder of the Lake Maracalbo, on which is situated the city of Maracalbo, the chief coffee port of Venezuela.

The fire of the German squadron was terrific, but the little fort, with its rather obsolete, small guns, replied vigorously, and the cannonading was incessant for several hours.

A number of persons were killed on shore, and the little village of San Carlos, which has grown up about the fort, was almost totally destroyed, being set on fire by the exploding German shells. exploding German shells.

The fire of the Vineta was the most destructive. Her 6-inch guns threw projecties into the fort with precision, and for a time slienced the Venezuelan batteries. But at intervals, during the whole bombardment, the guns of the fort were kept in action. So far as known on shore the Germans did not suffer seriously, although shells were not suffer seriously, although shells were seen to explode near the ships. One of the shells thrown by the Vineta exploded in a rampart of the fort, disabling a gun and killing and wounding all of the Panie prevailed in the town of San Carlos, which has a number of German residents. The latter bitterly denounced this action of their country ships in bombarding a

This was the second attack made by the Fermans on this fort. In the first, the runboat Panther, which was alone, fared the accurate fire of the fort's guns.

The Vineta carries two 6.2-inch quick firing guns, eight 6-inch quick firing guns, tan 2.4-inch quick firers and four machine guna.

The Falke carries eight $9-inch quick firing guna and four one-pound revolving of the fort's fire. She is armed with eight 3.4-inch and six 1.4-inch quick firing guns and two machine guns.

The three ships carry about 1000 men.

GERMANY'S ACTION IS

PUZZLING WASHINGTON was shown the Post-Dispatch's special story from Caracas on the second bombardment of Fort San Carlos this morning. He refused to discuss the news in any way.

The general situation is not affected by the bombardment in so far as Minister

There are, however, two viewpoints for looking at the movement. The bombard-ment may have been due to some local disturbance not known here, and, and if that is the case, nothing will come of it.

However, if the bombardment was long continued and had for its object the looting of the fort or killing of Venezuelans, it is realised here that the commanders of the German ships would not take part in such action without direct and positive orders The German commanders have no initiative in a case like this. If they moved up and bombarded the fort deliberately and without a local provocation, they were or-fered to do so by the German government.

In that event, there might easily be im-portant developments in which this govern-ment would figure. It is improbable thatt here will be an of-icial inquiry at this time for the reasons for the bombardment. The state depart-ment will await full particulars and will ment will await full particulars and will examine into the case.

If it is discovered that the bombardment was not due to local conditions, the incident will be placed on the list of others of the same kind for a reckoning later.

The state department and the world will know in a short time what the attitude of Germany is. All the powers have been asked to relieve the blockade pending peace negotiations.

If Germany means to deal fairly with Venezuela, negotiations will be begun with Mr. Bowen for a settlement.

Venesuela, negotiations will be begun with Mr. Bowen for a settlement.

If Germany does not mean to take its share in the settling of the affair, that fact will be evident when the time comes for the envoys of the three countries—England, Germany and Italy—to meet Minister Bowen, who has Itali authority from Venezuela to arrange a settlement.

The administration is willing to let inquiry into the position of Germany depend on this event. Germany must show her nand within a short time.

If the present delay, on account of Ambassador Von Sterburg's absence, stretches to such length that it shows that Germany does not intend to settle through Mr. Bowen, this country will be in a position to inquire what Germany really means, and that inquiry will be made.

Meantime the bombardment of forts and such demonstrations will probably continue until the blockade is raised.

The gunboat Fanther shelled Fort San farios for one hour last Saturday aftermon and then salied away.

The fort willed to the warship with her time, two them modern page of ordans.
